Important bits to read

We agree to provide you with insurance cover as long as you meet certain conditions. If you do not meet these conditions, we may decide not to accept a claim or to cancel your policy or treat it as it never existed.

You must:

- do what you can to protect your rental house against loss or damage
- be truthful and correct in everything you tell us
- meet the landlord's obligations (see page 16)
- let us know if there is any change of ownership or use of your rental house
- let us know if your rental house is unoccupied for more than 60 consecutive days
- let us know if you make any substantial alterations to your rental house.

Other stuff to know

Are my carpets and drapes covered?

Your policy covers your rental house, which includes fitted carpets as they are a floor covering fitted specifically to your house. It does not cover rugs or drapes. However, you can add cover for these items and other contents in your rental house if you wish by selecting 'Landlord's contents' optional cover.

Does my policy protect my tenants' possessions?

No – your policy does not cover any item owned by a tenant.

We strongly recommend you encourage your tenants to take out their own contents insurance.

Important notes

If your rental property is managed by an agent (e.g. a management company), you are responsible for making sure they comply with the terms of this policy.

See 'Your responsibilities' on page 16 for our requirements for you to inspect your rental property.

About your insurance contract

About this policy

- a. Your insurance contract (referred to as 'this policy' or 'your policy') consists of:
- this policy document
 - the Policy Schedule
 - the information you provided in the proposal
 - the premium advice
 - any changes that we write to you about
 - any changes you request and we agree to in writing.
- b. Your insurance contract begins when we accept the proposal, and ends on the expiry date stated on the Policy Schedule.
- c. You must pay your insurance premium by the date stated on the premium advice. You cannot make a claim until you have paid your premium. If you do not pay your premium your policy will cease to operate.

If you change your mind

If you are not happy with this policy, you are welcome to change your mind, provided you tell us within 15 days of the date this policy started. We will treat your policy as being of no effect and to have never existed and refund in full any premium you have paid. This does not apply if you have made a claim on your policy.

Headings

The headings in this policy are for reference only and do not form part of it. They must not be used when interpreting the policy.

Words in italics

Any words in italics do not form part of the policy and are provided by way of explanation only.

Our definition of 'rental house'

Property automatically covered

! The house sum insured you nominate is the most we will pay in total for any one claim for your 'rental house'. This should allow for all aspects that automatically form part of the definition of house.

This includes not only the house itself, but also your driveway, fences, paths, recreational features such as swimming pool, or retaining walls.

For definitions of other words used in this policy, please see page 19.

- a. By 'rental house' we mean the residential dwelling(s) situated at the address shown on the Policy Schedule, that you own and rent out as a residential rental property, including:
- outbuildings within the residential boundaries of the situation on which the residential dwelling(s) is situated. This includes any fixed domestic: garage, carport, glasshouse, animal shelter
 - fixtures and fittings permanently attached to the residential dwelling(s) or any outbuilding included above. This includes kitchen stove, hob or range hood, any other home appliance that is permanently wired, permanently plumbed or permanently built-in
 - kitchen oven, whether permanently attached or not
 - fitted floor coverings (including glued, smooth edge or tacked carpet and floating floors) of the residential dwelling(s) or its outbuildings included above
 - driveway of permanent construction that provides sole and direct access to the residential dwelling(s) or any outbuilding included above
 - patio, paths and paving of permanent construction, deck, steps, gate or fence, within the residential boundaries in which the residential dwelling(s) is situated
 - freestanding walls including garden and retaining walls
 - recreational features (by recreational features we mean any tennis court and/or permanently fixed swimming pool or permanently fixed spa pool including its ancillary fixed equipment and/or pump)
 - permanently sited water storage tank, septic tank or heating oil tank and its associated equipment (excluding its contents)
 - public utility services which supply the residential dwelling(s) and/or any of its outbuildings included above. This includes power and telephone lines, data cables, water supply and waste disposal pipes
 - solar power and solar water heating systems.

Special features not covered unless shown on the policy schedule

! To have cover for these items, they must be specified with a sum insured. Simply contact us to arrange cover.

- a. 'Rental house' does not include any of the following unless it is shown on the Policy Schedule as a special feature with a corresponding special feature sum insured:
- private utility plant and associated equipment including, but not limited to, wind or water mills, or diesel generators
 - cable car and its associated equipment
 - bridge, culvert, permanent ford or dam
 - wharf, pier, landing or jetty.

Property not covered

! To have cover for these items, they must be specified with a sum insured. Simply contact us to arrange cover.

- a. 'Rental house' does not include any of the following:
- part of the rental house that is used for business or commercial purposes, except where it is rented out as a residential rental property
 - part of the rental house that is built for or used for farming or rural lifestyle purposes, whether commercial or not, (including but not limited to any shed storing animal feed, machinery or produce, livestock handling yards or shelters)
 - part of the rental house being constructed, de-constructed or undergoing alterations and not suitable for permanent residential use or occupation
 - gravel or shingle, bark, shell or any other loose material, including those found in any driveway, path, patio or paving
 - loose floor covering, including mats, rugs or runners
 - temporary structure
 - fittings that are not permanently attached, such as curtains and blinds
 - appliances that are not permanently wired, permanently plumbed or permanently built-in, other than a kitchen oven
 - well or bore hole, including its pump, lining or casing

- household goods and personal effects
- any property belonging to any tenant of your rental house, or any visitor or guest
- any portable swimming pool or portable spa pool owned by you, unless 'Landlord's contents' optional cover (see page 9) has been chosen
- live plants, including any tree, shrub, hedge or grass
- land, earth or fill
- structure or property not at the situation shown on the Policy Schedule.

Cover for your rental house

What you are covered for

- a. You are covered for any sudden and accidental physical loss of or damage to your rental house that occurs during the period of cover.

What we will pay

The most we will pay House sum insured

- a. The most we will pay for loss of or damage to your rental house for any event that occurs during the period of cover is the house sum insured shown on the Policy Schedule. This includes any:
- i Compliance costs,
 - ii Professional and other fees,
 - iii Demolition and removal costs,
 - iv bonus covers and optional covers unless stated otherwise,
- but does not include any special feature (see special feature sum insured below).
- b. However, within the house sum insured, the most we will pay in total for any event that occurs during the period of cover for loss or damage to:
- i all retaining walls is $20,000, and
 - ii all recreational features is $40,000,
- unless you have requested and we have agreed to pay up to a higher limit for retaining walls or recreational features and this is shown on the Policy Schedule.

House
Sum Insured

Any special features

Total Sum
Insured

Special feature sum insured

- c. The most we will pay for loss or damage to any special feature shown on the Policy Schedule for any event that occurs during the period of cover is its special feature sum insured. This includes any:
- i Compliance costs,
 - ii Professional and other fees,
 - iii Demolition and removal costs.

Total sum insured

- d. The most we will pay for loss or damage under 'Cover for your rental house' in total for any event that occurs during the period of cover is the total sum insured. This includes the:
- i house sum insured, and
 - ii any special features' sums insured, and
 - iii bonus covers and optional covers unless stated otherwise.

Reduction of sums insured

- e. Following loss or damage to your rental house or any special feature for which a claim is payable under this policy or under the EQC Act, the total sum insured and the relevant sum insured or policy limit is reduced from the time of the loss or damage by the amount required to repair the loss or damage.
- For example, if a retaining wall is damaged, the total sum insured and the house sum insured and the retaining wall limit are reduced by the amount of that damage.*

- f. If, at the commencement of the current period of cover, your rental house or any special feature has any pre-existing loss or damage that was covered:
- i in a previous period of cover, or
 - ii under any house policy, or
 - iii under the EQC Act,

and such loss or damage remains unrepaired at the start of the current period of cover, the total sum insured and the relevant sum insured or policy limit are reduced from the start of this period of cover by the amount required to repair that pre-existing loss or damage.

Reinstatement of sums insured

- g. When, and to the extent that any payment is applied to repair your rental house or any special feature, the total sum insured and the relevant sum insured or policy limit that was reduced by 'Reduction of sums insured' above, are reinstated.

If your rental house is economic to repair

- a. If, in our opinion, it is economic to repair the loss or damage to your rental house, we may choose to:
- i pay you the reasonable cost incurred to repair the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage, or
 - ii pay you our estimate of the reasonable cost you would incur to repair the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage.

If your rental house is uneconomic to repair

- a. If, in our opinion, it is uneconomic to repair the loss or damage to your rental house, you may choose one of the following:
- i Rebuild on the same site
We will pay you the reasonable cost incurred to rebuild the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage to an equivalent size and specification on its original site, or
 - ii Rebuild on another site
We will pay you the reasonable cost incurred to rebuild the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage to an equivalent size and specification on another site that you provide anywhere in New Zealand. The cost must not be greater than our estimate of the reasonable cost of rebuilding the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage on its original site less demolition and removal costs incurred, or
 - iii Buy another house
We will pay you the reasonable cost incurred to buy another house anywhere in New Zealand, including reasonable and necessary legal and associated fees. However, we will not pay more than our estimate of the reasonable cost that would have been payable if the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage had been rebuilt within a reasonable timeframe on the original site less demolition and removal costs incurred. Compliance costs, professional and other fees are not included in the estimated rebuilding costs as these are only incurred when rebuilding occurs, or
 - iv Accept a cash payment with our consent
At our sole discretion, we will pay you our estimate of the reasonable cost to rebuild the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage less demolition and removal costs incurred. Compliance costs, professional and other fees are not included in the estimated rebuilding cost as these are only incurred when rebuilding occurs.

Note: Where your rental house is uneconomic to repair, and you choose not to rebuild on the same site, we will arrange demolition of the rental house and removal of the debris as we see fit.

- b. If, in our opinion, it is uneconomic to repair the loss of or damage to your rental house and you sell your rental house before the rebuilding begins the most we will pay is the lesser of:
- i the total sum insured, and
 - ii the difference between the market value of your rental house immediately before and immediately after the loss or damage, plus demolition and removal costs we determine are necessary,
- less any costs covered by this policy which have been met by us up to the date on which the sale settles.

Settlement of your loss

The following are subject to the provisions outlined above in 'The most we will pay'.

Standard of repair or rebuild

- a. We will pay the reasonable cost to repair or rebuild the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage to a condition as similar as possible to when it was new, using current industry accepted building materials and construction methods, but excluding:
- i additional materials, work and expense required solely to comply with government or local authority bylaws and regulations, unless covered under 'Compliance costs' below, or
 - ii design, engineers', surveyors' and building consultants' fees, and consents and other associated legal fees, unless covered under 'Professional and other fees' below.

Fitted floor coverings

- b. We will pay:
- i the replacement cost of fitted floor coverings 10 years old and under, or
 - ii the present value of fitted floor coverings over 10 years old.

Compliance costs

- c. If you are repairing or rebuilding your rental house, we will also include the reasonable cost of additional materials, work and expense required solely to comply with government or local authority bylaws and regulations. We will only pay these costs of compliance:
- i if the rental house complied with all requirements that existed at the time it was originally built and at the time of any alteration, and
 - ii for the part of the rental house that has suffered loss or damage covered by this policy.
- d. We will not pay any costs of compliance if notice of non-compliance had already been served before the loss or damage occurred.
- e. These costs are not payable when you buy another rental house or accept a cash payment as settlement of your claim as described in a. iii or iv of 'If your rental house is uneconomic to repair' above.

Professional and other fees

- f. If you are repairing or rebuilding the part of your rental house that suffered loss or damage, we will also include the reasonable costs of:
- i design, engineer's, surveyor's and building consultant's fees, and
 - ii consents and associated legal fees.
- g. These costs must be necessary to repair or rebuild the part of your rental house that has suffered loss or damage, and approved by us before they are incurred.
- h. These costs are not payable when you buy another house or accept a cash payment as settlement of your claim as described in a. ii or iii of 'If your rental house is uneconomic to repair' above.

Demolition and removal costs

- i. If we accept a claim for loss or damage to your rental house, we will also pay the reasonable costs of:
- i demolition of the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage that is necessary to effect the repair or rebuild of that loss or damage, and the removal of debris associated with that, and
 - ii removing your landlord's contents when this is required to enable your rental house to be repaired or rebuilt, and returning them to your rental house once repairs or rebuilding is completed. This does not include the cost of storing your landlord's contents.
- j. These costs must be necessary and approved by us before they are incurred.
- k. If we pay to demolish any part of your rental house this gives us the choice to take the debris and dispose of it as we see fit and retain any salvage obtained.

What we will not pay

- Costs not covered
- a. We will not pay for any costs that are incurred for:
 - i any part of your rental house that has not suffered loss or damage unless this is necessary to repair or rebuild the covered loss or damage, or
 - ii repairing or replacing floor coverings that are not in the room(s) where the loss or damage happened, or
 - iii stabilising, supporting or restoring land, earth, or fill, or
 - iv anyone you engage to prepare, advise on, or negotiate a claim made under this policy.

Unoccupied rental houses

- a. If your rental house is unoccupied for more than 60 consecutive days, we will only pay for loss or damage that is:
 - i caused by fire, explosion or lightning, or
 - ii covered under 'Natural disaster' cover, unless you have notified us and we have agreed in writing to cover your rental house while unoccupied.
This restriction will end as soon as your tenant, or a person authorised by you, is living in your rental house again.

Bonus covers

The following bonus covers are automatically included on the same basis as 'Cover for your rental house' on page 3. The amounts shown in these bonus covers are included within the total sum insured unless expressly stated otherwise.

Electric current damage

- a. You are covered for burning out during the period of cover caused by electric current to:
 - i the permanent wiring in your rental house, and
 - ii electric motors 5 years old and under that form part of your rental house or are solely used to provide services to your rental house.
- b. You are not covered for any loss or damage caused by electric current to lighting or heating elements, fuses or protective devices.
- c. You must pay your excess as shown on the Policy Schedule towards the cost of any claim under 'Electric current damage' cover.

Electronic programs

- a. You are covered for the reasonable cost of restoring, re-setting or re-programming programs, software and other coded instructions necessary to operate any electronic equipment covered under this policy as part of your rental house where that electronic equipment has suffered loss or damage covered by this policy.
- b. You are not covered for loss of or damage to any data stored on any of that electronic equipment.
- c. You must pay your excess as shown on the Policy Schedule towards the cost of any claim under 'Electric programs' cover.

Hidden gradual damage

- a. You are covered for the reasonable costs to:
 - i repair any hidden gradual deterioration, rot, mildew or mould damage to your rental house caused by the leaking of any internal water pipe or internal waste disposal pipe, and
 - ii repair damage necessarily caused to locate the leak.
- b. The leak must first have occurred while you owned and insured your rental house with us.
- c. The most we will pay for any one claim is $1,500.
- d. You must pay your excess as shown on the Policy Schedule towards the cost of any claim under 'Hidden gradual damage' cover.

Methamphetamine contamination

a. You are covered for contamination damage to:

- i the rental house, or
- ii landlord's contents at the rental house,

that first occurs and that you discover, during the period of cover, subject to the following:

There is no cover for any contamination damage where any contamination existed or occurred prior to the current period of cover unless the pre-existing contamination was disclosed to and accepted by us in writing. If you have insured your rental house with us (or any other brand underwritten by IAG New Zealand Limited) continuously since the earlier period when the contamination damage first occurred, we will waive the requirement for the contamination damage to have first occurred during the period of cover.

Damage by you and certain others

b. You are not covered for any contamination damage that is caused or contributed to, directly or indirectly, by or in connection with you, or your husband or wife, or any person with whom you are living in the nature of a marriage, or any member of your or their family.

For the purposes of this exclusion, you includes any trustee or beneficiary of the trust if the rental house is owned by the trust, or any director or shareholder of the company if the rental house is owned by the company, or any unit title holder.

Where you do not live in the rental house

c. Where the contamination damage happens in connection with any tenancy or occupancy of:

- i more than 90 days, there is no cover unless you, or the person who manages the tenancy on your behalf, have fully met the landlord's obligations (see page 16), or
- ii 90 days or less, there is no cover unless the contamination damage was caused by an accidental incident in connection with the manufacture, distribution or storage (but only where the storage is in connection with supply or distribution) of methamphetamine at the rental house.

What we will pay

d. Where there is cover under this bonus cover, we will:

- i reimburse the reasonable costs you have incurred during the period of cover for testing provided that:
 - a) the testing is carried out in accordance with New Zealand Standard NZS 8510 or by an operator approved by us, and
 - b) the testing confirms contamination damage to the rental house, and
- ii pay to remediate that part of the rental house that suffered contamination damage subject to the provisions below.

e. We may choose to:

- i pay you the reasonable costs incurred to remediate the part of the rental house that suffered the contamination damage, or
- ii pay you our estimate of the reasonable costs you would incur to remediate the part of the rental house that suffered the contamination damage.

f. The most we will pay is $30,000 per contamination claim for each residential dwelling shown on the Policy Schedule as covered by this policy.

g. An excess of $2,500 or the excess shown on the Policy Schedule, whichever is greater, applies per contamination claim for each residential dwelling shown on the Policy Schedule as covered by this policy.

Natural disaster

a. This policy is extended to cover any sudden and accidental physical loss of or damage to your rental house that occurs during the period of cover caused by a natural disaster, subject to the following:

Where EQC Cover applies

b. If the loss or damage is covered under the EQC Act, and the cost to repair or rebuild the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage exceeds your maximum entitlement available under the EQC Act for that event, we will pay the difference between that maximum entitlement and the cost to repair or rebuild the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage.

- c. Where the loss or damage would have been covered under the EQC Act but there is no claim paid because:
- i you failed to correctly notify a claim to the Earthquake Commission within the time required under the EQC Act, or
 - ii the Earthquake Commission decline the claim or limit its liability for that loss or damage in whole or in part and for any reason whatsoever, or
 - iii of any act or omission on your part, the part of your agent, or the part of the Earthquake Commission,
- we will only pay the difference between the maximum entitlement that would have been payable (but for the reasons outlined in c. i to iii, or the application of an excess), had the Earthquake Commission agreed to accept a claim, and the cost to repair or rebuild the part of your rental house that suffered the loss or damage.
- d. There is no cover for the excess payable by you under the EQC Act.
- e. The most we will pay under this cover for any event is the difference between that maximum entitlement and the total sum insured.

Where no EQC Cover applies

- f. Where your claim for loss of or damage to your rental house under this cover is for, or includes, any part of your rental house that is not covered under the EQC Act, then the excess will be the higher of:
- i the excess shown on the Policy Schedule for items not covered by the Earthquake Commission, and
 - ii the excess applying to any claim unless specifically mentioned.

Some examples of parts of your rental house not covered under the EQC Act are:

- fence, gate or driveway,
- patio, path, paving, tennis court or other artificial surface,
- swimming pool or spa pool.

Post event inflation protection

- a. We may, at our sole discretion, increase the cover available under this policy if:
- i a natural disaster, flood or storm has occurred in the vicinity of your rental house causing widespread loss or damage and, as a direct result of this widespread loss or damage, building costs have increased due to a statistically significant increase in demand in our opinion, and
 - ii your rental house has suffered sudden and accidental loss or damage that is covered by this policy and your claim in respect of that loss or damage is settled on the basis of an actual repair or rebuild of your rental house, and
 - iii the actual cost to repair or rebuild:
 - a) your rental house is higher than your house sum insured, or
 - b) any retaining walls and recreational features is higher than their corresponding limit shown in the Policy Schedule, or
 - c) any special feature is higher than its corresponding special feature sum insured, solely due to the increase in building costs described in paragraph i above.
- b. The most we will pay, in total, for all increases in cover is the amount calculated by applying the percentage of the statistically significant increase in demand to:
- i the house sum insured shown on the Policy Schedule, and
 - ii the corresponding limit for any retaining wall or recreational feature shown in the Policy Schedule, and
 - iii the special feature sums insured, where a special feature is shown in the Policy Schedule, up to a maximum of 10% more than those sums insured.

However, under no circumstances will we pay more than an additional 10% of the home sum insured in total for i and ii under this clause.

For example:

An earthquake causes damage to a large number of houses in your town and substantially damaged your rental house. As a result of all of the houses needing to be repaired or rebuilt, the cost of building materials and labour increases sharply. If your total sum insured of $300,000 is no longer adequate because of the increased costs we may pay up to $330,000 to rebuild or repair your rental house.

- Sale and purchase
- a. Where loss or damage occurs after you have entered into an unconditional contract to sell your rental house, the purchaser is covered by this policy for that loss up until the final settlement date, or until they take possession of your rental house, whichever happens first as long as:
 - i they meet all the same conditions of this policy that you must meet, and
 - ii they have not otherwise insured your rental house at the time of the loss or damage.

- Security after loss
- a. If a claim is accepted under 'Cover for your rental house', we will pay reasonable costs approved by us to temporarily secure your rental house against further loss or damage if it is unoccupied immediately following the loss or damage.
 - b. The most we will pay for any one claim is $2,000.
 - c. You do not have to pay an excess for any claim under 'Security after loss' cover.

Optional covers

The following optional covers are available if you pay an additional premium. The Policy Schedule shows which optional covers you have chosen. The optional covers are provided on the same basis as 'Cover for your rental house' on page 3.

- Landlord's contents
- What you are covered for
- a. You are covered for any sudden and accidental physical loss of or damage to landlord's contents that occurs during the period of cover caused directly by:
 - i burglary, or
 - ii fire, explosion or lightning, or
 - iii storm or flood, or
 - iv burning out of electric motors in household appliances 5 years old and under, or
 - v damage to electronic equipment or domestic appliances caused directly by a surge or fluctuation in the supply of electricity, or
 - vi water or oil discharged, overflowing or leaking from the normal household water system or fixed central heating system, or
 - vii impact with a motor vehicle, aircraft or other aerial device, or
 - viii falling trees or branches, or
 - ix the actions of wild birds or wild animals, except for rodents, or
 - x deliberate act by persons other than a tenant or their guests, or you or your agent, or
 - xi riot or other public disturbance.
 - b. You are covered for loss or damage to landlord's contents that occurs during the period of cover, caused directly by any of the causes listed under a. above while they are temporarily removed from your rental house to be cleaned, renovated or repaired.
However, your landlord's contents are not covered when removed from your rental house while they are:
 - i in transit, or
 - ii in the open air, or
 - iii being carried by any person.

What we will pay

- c. We will pay the present value for all items of landlord's contents.
- d. The most we will pay for any one claim under 'Landlord's contents' cover is the landlord's contents sum insured shown on the Policy Schedule.
- e. We will only pay for damage to curtains, drapes and indoor blinds in the room or rooms where damage occurs.
- f. You must pay your excess as shown on the Policy Schedule towards the cost of any claim under 'Landlord's contents' cover.

How we will settle a claim

- g. We may choose to either:
- i pay to repair the item as near as possible to the condition it was in before the damage occurred, or
 - ii pay you either the present value of the item or the replacement cost to us, whichever is the lesser, or
 - iii provide you with a voucher to the present value of the item, or
 - iv replace the item with the nearest equivalent available in New Zealand, up to its present value.

Lost rent

- a. If your rental house becomes unfit to live in as a result of an event or contamination damage to your rental house during the period of cover, that:
- i is covered by this policy, or
 - ii would have been covered by this policy, but is covered by the EQC Act instead, you are covered for lost rent while the rental house is occupied by a tenant or you have a lease agreement for occupancy to commence.
- b. We will reimburse you for the actual net rent (excluding any property management or other fees) you do not receive until the earlier of the date on which we:
- i settle your claim for loss or damage or contamination damage, or
 - ii have paid you 6 months' lost rent costs.
- c. Where we have settled your claim for loss or damage or contamination damage by payment of our estimate of the costs you would incur to repair or remediate, we will cover the amount of lost rent for the reasonable estimated period that it would take to repair or remediate that part of the rental house that suffers the loss or damage or contamination damage.
- d. You do not have to pay an excess for any claim under 'Lost rent' cover.

Glass or sanitary fixture claims

- a. If we agree to pay your claim under 'Cover for your rental house' on page 3, you will not have to pay any excess for damage to:
- i windows (including skylight or leadlight), door glass, fixed glass panes and glass splash backs, and
 - ii baths, hand basins, shower doors, moulded shower cabinet units, bidets, toilet cisterns and bowls, and
 - iii mirrors permanently fixed to your rental house.

Tenants vacating without notice

- a. You are covered for any lost rent as a direct result of your tenant vacating your rental house without giving the required notice.
- b. We will pay the actual net rent (excluding any property management or other fees) lost up to a maximum period of 8 weeks.
- c. We will not cover any lost rent if:
- i you have given notice of eviction, or
 - ii a tenant fails to commence their occupancy of your rental house.
- d. Whenever a tenant's rent is 7 days in arrears, you must:
- i notify your tenant in writing, and
 - ii confirm the tenant is still in occupation.
- e. You must find a new tenant as soon as practicable.
- f. You must pay your excess as shown on the Policy Schedule towards the cost of any claim under 'Tenants vacating without notice' cover.

Theft or deliberate damage by tenants

- a. We will cover the theft of any part of your rental house or deliberate damage to your rental house caused by your tenants and/or their guests.
- b. If you have also chosen 'Landlord's contents' cover, we will cover the theft of or deliberate damage caused by your tenants and/or their guests to items of your landlord's contents insured under this policy.

- c. The most we will pay for any one claim is $3,000.
- d. You must pay your excess as shown on the Policy Schedule towards the cost of any claim under 'Theft or deliberate damage by tenants' cover.

Cover if you damage other people's property

What you are covered for

- a. You are covered for your legal liability for:
 - i sudden and accidental physical loss of or damage to other people's property, and
 - ii bodily injury to anyone else, occurring in the period of cover in connection with your ownership of the rental house or its grounds.

What we will pay

Legal Liability

- a. We will pay up to $1 million for any one claim or series of claims arising from any one event which includes:
 - i any reasonable legal, expert and witness expenses you incur to defend, including investigation in preparation for defending, civil proceedings taken against you in a New Zealand court or tribunal that are first approved in writing by us, and
 - ii any costs that are recoverable from you by any claimant in a New Zealand court or tribunal.
 However, if you are legally liable for damage to your tenant's property at your rental house, we will only pay up to $20,000 for any claim or series of claims arising from any one event.
- b. If this policy covers more than one residential dwelling on the same property as agreed by us, the most we will pay for any one event is $1 million.
- c. You do not have to pay an excess for any claim under this cover.

Reparation

- d. You are also covered for your legal liability to pay reparation to a victim who has suffered accidental loss of or damage to property or accidental bodily injury that is a result of you committing an offence during the period of cover in connection with your ownership of the rental house or its grounds provided that:
 - i you tell us immediately if you are charged with any offence in connection with your ownership of the rental house or its grounds which resulted in loss of or damage to property or bodily injury to another person, and
 - ii we give our written approval before any offer of reparation is made.
- e. Reparation means an amount ordered by a New Zealand Court to be paid to the victim of an offence under section 32 of the Sentencing Act 2002.
- f. There is no cover for any amounts that are covered under the Accident Compensation Act 2001 (Act), or would be covered but for:
 - i a failure by the victim to correctly notify a claim to the Accident Compensation Corporation within the time required under the Act,
 - ii the victim's decision, for whatever reason, not to claim any amount he or she would be entitled to claim under the Act,
 - iii a decision by the Accident Compensation Corporation to decline a claim or limit its liability in whole or in part and for any reason whatsoever.
- g. Nothing in this cover should be taken as providing cover for any defence costs, court costs, levies or costs awarded for any offence.

What we will not cover

- a. We will not cover legal liability for loss or damage:
 - i to any property owned by you or in the custody or control of you or your agent or any person who normally resides with you, or
 - ii caused intentionally by you or your agent or any person who normally resides with you, or
 - iii caused directly or indirectly by any motor vehicle (other than any domestic garden appliance), or
 - iv arising out of or in connection with any profession, business or trade (other than renting the rental house as a residence), or

- v arising out of or in connection with any seepage, pollution or contamination (including costs of removing nullifying or cleaning up), or
- vi if you have agreed to accept liability for that loss or damage when you would not otherwise have been liable, or
- vii if you have created liability for that loss or damage by a contract or agreement when you would not have been liable otherwise, or
- viii if you do not comply with your obligations under the tenancy agreement.

If you need to make a claim

These are your obligations as a policyholder. If you do not fulfil these obligations we may decide not to accept a claim.

Your obligations

- a. If it is likely that you will make a claim, you must contact us immediately. You may be asked to fill out a claim form.
- b. If there has been any deliberate damage, burglary or theft, you must notify the Police immediately.
- c. You must do what you can to prevent any further loss or damage.
- d. You must get our permission before you arrange for any repairs or replacement.
- e. You must immediately tell us of any communication you receive that relates to an event which has resulted, or could result, in a claim.
- f. You must help us to manage your claim as we request, including after your claim is settled. This may involve:
 - i providing us with any further information, documents or authorities we ask for, including proof of ownership or value, and/or
 - ii meeting with us or our representatives, and/or
 - iii attending court or a tribunal to give evidence, and/or
 - iv assisting us in taking proceedings in your name.
- g. You must obtain our agreement before you:
 - i incur any expenses in connection with any claim under this policy, or
 - ii negotiate, pay, settle, admit or deny any claim against you, or
 - iii do anything that may prejudice our rights of recovery, or
 - iv negotiate, offer to pay or pay any reparation, including, but not limited to, offers made as part of any case management conference or sentencing hearing.

- h. You must consent to your personal information, in connection with the claim, being:
 - i disclosed to us, and
 - ii transferred to the Insurance Claims Register Limited.

Your entitlements

- a. You are entitled to:
 - i have your claim acknowledged and dealt with in a professional and efficient manner, and
 - ii receive a fair settlement of your claim as quickly as circumstances allow, and
 - iii receive a clear explanation why any claim has not been met, and
 - iv have free access to our formal complaints procedure (see 'General policy information' on page 18), and
 - v have free access to an independent review by the Insurance and Financial Services Ombudsman.

Our entitlements

- a. We are entitled to:
 - i inspect your rental house by entering any land or building where loss or damage has occurred, and
 - ii take and keep possession of your damaged or recovered items, and
 - iii deal with any salvage in a reasonable manner, and
 - iv complete all necessary documents and authorities as your agent, and
 - v negotiate, defend or settle any claim against you that is covered under this policy, and recover from any other person anything covered under this policy.

Other insurance

- a. If you make a claim under this policy and there is another policy covering the same loss, damage or liability, we will not contribute towards a claim under any other policy.

Application of bond

- a. If you make a claim under this policy, any rent paid in advance and bond money you are entitled to receive as landlord at the end of the tenancy, is to be applied to the following in that order:
 - i rent owing to you,
 - ii costs of repairing damage to your rental house,
 - iii costs of repairing or replacing your rental house contents if you have chosen 'Landlord's contents' optional cover.

Your excess

What you must pay

- a. Your excess is the first amount you must pay towards the cost of any claim you make. The Policy Schedule or this policy document shows the excess that applies.
- b. It is your responsibility to pay your excess prior to the settlement of your claim. Your excess can be:
 - i paid to the repairer or supplier and we will deduct the excess from our payment to them, or
 - ii paid to us, or
 - iii deducted from any sum paid to you.

Your responsibilities

These are your responsibilities as a policyholder. If you do not fulfil these responsibilities, we may decide not to accept a claim and/or to cancel your policy or treat it as it never existed.

Protecting your property

- a. You, and anyone else covered by this policy must take reasonable care to protect all property covered by this policy.
- b. You must keep your property in a good condition at all times.

True statements and answers

- a. All information supplied by you or on your behalf must be truthful and correct.
- b. Your insurance contract is based on information supplied to us either by you or on your behalf:
 - i in the proposal, or
 - ii within the period of cover, or
 - iii at renewal, or
 - iv when you make a claim under this policy.
- c. You must tell us immediately about any change of circumstance that may affect our decision:
 - i whether to accept your proposal and on what terms, or
 - ii whether to continue or to renew this policy, or
 - iii whether to reinstate this policy, or
 - iv about any claim made under this policy.
- d. If any information supplied is untruthful or incorrect, or if you do not disclose all of the information you should have, the policy will be treated as though it never existed and we will refuse to accept a claim.
- e. If you make a fraudulent claim, we may decline your claim and cancel the policy with immediate effect.
- f. We may change the terms of this policy in response to any material change in circumstances you or anyone else advises to us. The change in terms will be effective from the date of the change in circumstance.

Please ask us if you are not sure whether you need to tell us about something.

Landlord obligations

- a. You, or your agent, must:
 - i exercise reasonable care in the selection of tenant(s) by at least obtaining satisfactory identification and written or verbal references for each adult tenant and when a reasonable landlord would consider it appropriate also check their credit and Tenancy Tribunal history, and
 - ii keep written records of the pre-tenancy checks conducted for each adult tenant, and provide to us a copy of these if we request it, and
 - iii collect:
 - a) at least 1 weeks' rent in advance, and
 - b) at least 2 weeks' rent in the form of a bond that will be registered with Tenancy Services, or
 - c) any combinations of a) and b) to a total of 3 weeks' rent, and
 - iv complete an internal and external inspection of the rental house at a minimum of 3 monthly intervals and upon every change of tenants, and
 - v keep photographs and a written record of the outcome of each inspection, and provide to us a copy of these if we request it, and
 - vi monitor rents on a weekly basis with written notification being sent to the tenant(s) whenever rent is 14 days in arrears, together with a personal visit to determine if the tenant(s) remain in residence, and
 - vii apply to the Tenancy Tribunal for vacant possession in accordance with the provisions of the Residential Tenancies Act 1986 if:
 - a) the rent is 21 days in arrears, or
 - b) you become aware of any illegal activity by the occupant(s) at the rental house, or
 - c) deliberate damage to the rental house is caused by one of its occupant(s).

Breach of any condition

- a. If you or anyone else covered by this policy or acting on your behalf, breaches any of the conditions of this policy, we may at our sole discretion:
 - i decline your claim, either in whole or in part, and/or
 - ii decline any claim connected with the same event that you make on any other policies you have with us, and/or
 - iii declare either this policy or all insurance you have with us to be of no effect and to no longer exist from the date of the dishonest or fraudulent act, or breach.

Changing or ending your policy

- Changing your policy
 - a. You can ask to change your policy at any time. We must agree in writing to any changes before they become effective.
 - b. We can change the terms of your policy by writing to or emailing you at the last known address we have for you. Any changes will become effective from the 14th day after the date of the notice.

- Ending your policy
 - a. You can cancel your policy at any time. If you do, we will refund any premium due to you based on the unused portion of the period of cover.
 - b. We can cancel your policy at any time by writing to or emailing you at your last known address we have for you. Your policy will be cancelled on the 14th day after the date of the notice. If this happens, we will refund any premium due to you based on the unused portion of the period of cover.
 - c. Your policy will be automatically cancelled if you do not pay the premium. Cancellation under this clause will be effective from the date to which the policy was paid up to.
 - d. If, in our opinion it is uneconomic to repair the loss to your rental house, your policy will be automatically cancelled on the date we pay your or the date on which rebuilding commences, whichever occurs first. We will not refund you any premium for the unused portion of the period of cover.
 - e. Your policy will end immediately if you sell your rental house or your interest in your rental house ends. If this happens, we will refund any premium due to you based on the unused portion of the period of cover.
